Snap is a free and confidential youth group and service for lesbian, gay, bisexual, trans and questioning (LGBTQ) young people in Bromley.

The Snap youth group:

- is a friendly and safe place to meet other young LGBTQ people
- has fun activities, trips out and workshops about things that interest you
- is a free and confidential place to get support from dedicated and experienced youth workers
- Snap also offers specialist support and information about your sexual health and wellbeing and access to a range of other free services including a separate support group for under 16s

Snap is part of METRO Youth, which provides a range of services for young people in London and the South East.

Who are METRO?
